

Contents

Volume I – Art from Carinthia from 1945 to the Present

Preface	298
Introduction Silvie Aigner	300
Art from Carinthia from 1945 to the Present Global, Local, a Psychogram of Art from and in Carinthia. Irmgard Bohunovsky-Bärnthaler	302
Departure and Confrontation – The Path from Modernism to Avant-garde Carinthian Artists from 1945 to the Late 60s Elisabeth Voggeneder	306
Fleeing from the Country/Fleeing from the City Carinthian Painting from 1960 Franz Smola	315
Graphic Positions after 1945 in Carinthia Florian Steininger	323
Beyond Expression and Gesture Reductive, Constructive and Concrete Trends in Works by Carinthian Artists after 1945 A Search for Clues Christine Wetzlinger-Grundnig	326
The Development of Sculpture and Object Art From Avant-garde after 1945 to the Expanded Concept of Sculpture Today Silvie Aigner	335
The Sculptors' Symposium [kunstwerk] kratal Silvie aigner	346
Just Switching between Sign Systems? Twofold Talents and Text-Image Texts Eva Maltrovsky	349
Determined Individuality and Group Spirit Painting since 1990 from the Autonomous Panel Painting to the Interlacing of Media Silvie Aigner	353
Peeling Hot Potatoes Forms of Radicalizing Everyday (Dis)Ruptures. Thoughts on Viktor Rogy (1924-2004) Nicola Hirner	358

How can you call it Heimat? Art Photography and New Media Hemma Schmutz	362
The Meaning of the Public in Art Selected artistic positions in Carinthia/Koroška Andreas Krištof	366
Views of Economy The Kunstraum Lakeside in Context Christian Kravagna, Hedwig Saxenhuber	372
Volume II – Architecture since 1945 and Art in Public Space Today
Preface	378
Introduction	380
Carinthia As Built A Historical Outline of Architecture in Carinthia From 1945 to the Present Day Theresia Hauenfels	382
Architecture and Resistance Political Engagement in Building, Urban Planning and Landscape Architecture Otto Kapfinger	404
Architecture and Art Biographical Interdependencies and Personal Constellations Otto Kapfinger	412
Friedrich Achleitner and Gernot Kulterer Interviewed by Theresia Hauenfels, Vienna, 19.11.2007	416
Art and the Public in Carinthia: Realities and Visions Ulli Sturm	420
Reality Check The Public Space of Carinthia as a Playground for Regional Developers — an Art Space for Artists with an Elastic Conscience? Tomas Hoke	429
Biographies	432