

Storytelling

No. 69

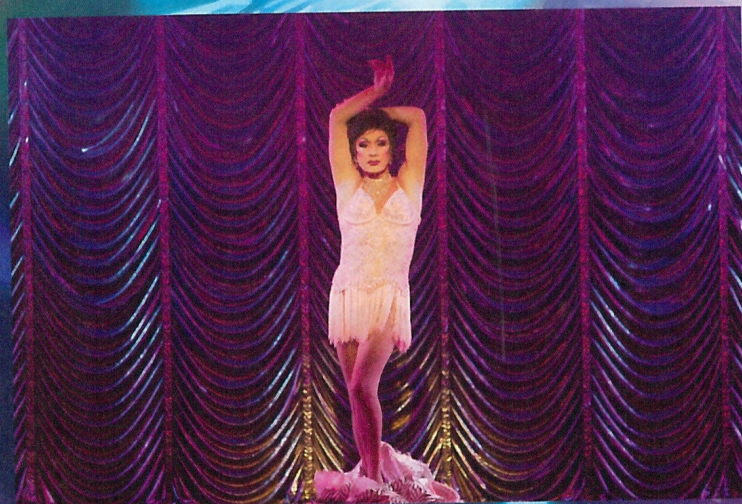

Spike

Autumn 2021

Contents

024 Contributors

026 Imprint

028 Artist's Favourites
Hannah Quinlan & Rosie Hastings on their favourite gay bars in the UK and in fiction

032 Curator's Key
Omar Kholeif on Otobong Nkanga's installation In Pursuit of Bling (2014)

036 Exhibition History
"Ausgeträumt ..." (2001), Vienna
Christian Kobald talks with curator Kathrin Rhombert

042 One Work
Tracey Emin's Everyone I Have Ever Slept With 1963–1995 (1995)
By Victoria Campbell

048 Essay
Fiona Alison Duncan & Jamieson Webster on the vital power-plays of gossip and psychoanalysis

054 Question
Joshua Citarella – Do We Need New Platforms for New Stories?

056 Field Notes
Sean Monahan on dubious accounts

065 Image Contributions
Sophie von Hellermann, Shuang Li, Camille Henrot, Jordan Strafer, Philippe Gerlach

076 Question
Elizabeth A. Povinelli – What Makes a Story True?

080 Portrait: Sophie Calle
By Jeppe Ugelvig

090 Portrait: Julien Ceccaldi
By Geoffrey Mak

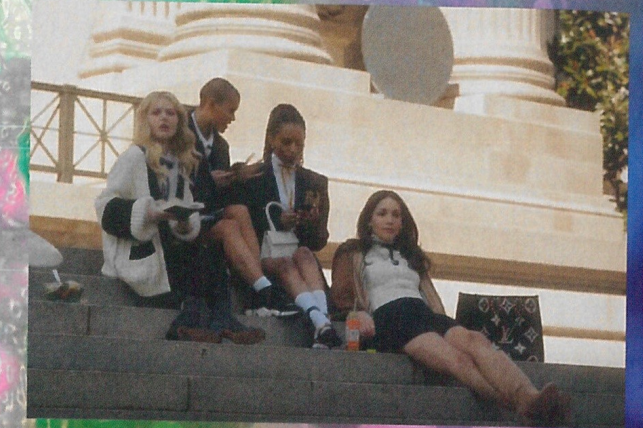

100 Portrait: Ho Tzu Nyen
An interview with Jaime Chu

112 Question
Bert The Pomeranian – How Do You Build a Brand Identity on Instagram?

114 Essay
Martin Herbert on narration's bad rap in art

120 Art World
Mike Pepi's polemic against the panel

124 Literature
Ingrid Luquet-Gad on autofiction after the internet

130 Branding
Laura Lotti on decentralised brands and on-chain storytelling

136 Fashion
Taylore Scarabelli on contemporary television's unexpressive fashion

140 Postcard from Moscow by Ilia Ovechkin

142 Seduction
By Daniela Brunand, Giovanni Carmine, Attilia Fattori Franchini, Adina Glickstein, Poppy Dongxue Wu

145 Views
Basel, Berlin, Hong Kong, Kassel, London, Los Angeles, Milan, Munich, New York, Vienna, Warsaw

183 Gesellschaft am Ende
Tea Hacic-Vlahovic on small-town rumour mills